

Deborah Mangus Memorial Scholarship
Fairfield Local School District

The Deborah Mangus Memorial Scholarship was created by her parents, Hugo and Linda Bietz, and her family for Mrs. Mangus who served many years as a Guidance Counselor at Fairfield Local Schools. A single award of $1,000 will be made annually to a deserving student.

Eligibility

The scholarship seeks applicants who are seniors at Fairfield High School with plans to obtain a two- or four-year college degree in any discipline. Applicants must have a 3.25 GPA and show evidence of strong community involvement.

Application

To apply, students should submit a written statement of need to the Guidance Office, explaining how the Scholarship funds will be used. Finalists will be invited for an in-person interview with family members and high school staff as designated by the High School Principal.

Application deadline is April 1.

The scholarship recipient and District Treasurer will be notified by the Bietz family in writing. Mr. and Mrs. Bietz retains the right to withhold scholarships in any year that no candidate is determined to be qualified.

The scholarship payment will be made by the Treasurer of Fairfield Local School District directly to the student after graduation but prior to August 1 of the award year
